

Green Energy Technology Announcement

This morning (Aug. 2), GET in Southern Taiwan Park found smokes generated from a separated area, which operated by an independent recycled service company. To make sure safety, GET requested local fire bureau to support and monitor.

The area is separated from GET's main operating lines, and is operated independently for recycling materials. There is no impact on GET new capacity and equipment testing plans.